

THE START OF INSULIN

Did You Know?

Insulin research started in 1889 on dogs!

Insulin from cattle and pigs was used for many years to treat diabetes and saved millions of lives

The first genetically-engineered, synthetic "human" insulin was produced in a laboratory in 1977.

Insulin, which comes for the Latin word insula, meaning "island".

